2013-14 HIGHLIGHTS

- With 16 wins, Penn State and head coach Patrick Chambers reached a victory mark topped just three times in this millennium (21, 2000-01; 27, 2008-09; 19, 2010-11) ... The six Big Ten wins have been topped just once in the previous four seasons.
- Penn State finished the regular season first in the Big Ten in two-point percentage defense (45.1) in conference action after holding eight B1G opponents to shooting percentages at or below 40%. The Lions were sixth in the Big Ten in total field-goal defense with opponents hitting 41 percent of their shots.
- Penn State had six one-possession games in Big Ten play, the most of any conference team. Nine of Penn State's league games were decided by a combined 25 points (average of 2.8). The Lions went 5-7 on the season in games decided by five or fewer points, with the wins coming vs. Hampton in the CBI, Nebraska, Indiana and Ohio State (twice).
- The Lions swept Ohio State for the first time since 1998, becoming just the second team to beat the Buckeyes twice in the regular season in the last five years (MSU, 2012) and the first unranked team to do so since Minnesota in 2005 ... Penn State was the only unranked team to sweep a ranked team in the Big Ten last season.
- Penn State defeated both Ohio State and Indiana on the road in the same season for the first time in program history.
- The Lions averaged 81.2 points per game in non-conference play, more than 17 points more than they scored during pre-Big Ten play last season (64.0). Penn State produced at least 70 points in all but two non-conference games this season and topped 90 points on three occasions.
- The 6-1 start was Penn State's best under Patrick Chambers and overall since 2008-09 when the Nittany Lions opened 7-1.
- The loss to Ole Miss Nov. 30 snapped a five-game winning streak, the longest for the program since the start of the 2008-09 campaign when the Lions won their first five games.

PRESEASON NOTES

CHAMBERS BEGINS YEAR FOUR

The 2014-15 season marks the fourth in University Park for head coach Patrick Chambers. The Philly native has seen his win total, both overall and in the power-packed Big Ten, climb each season as he racked up a sweep of Top 25-ranked Ohio State, a road win at Indiana and his first PSU postseason appearance last season.

VETERANS MAKE UP 2014-15 ROSTER

When Penn State takes the floor for this season, Patrick Chambers will have a veteran roster for the first time in his career. Five seniors lead the charge with a total of seven players who made appearances in the starting lineup last season. D.J. Newbill, Ross Travis, Brandon Taylor and Donovan Jack each started at least 75 percent of the team's games. Newbill has started all 65 games of his PSU career.

BIG TEN LEADERS

D.J. Newbill finished last season second in the league in scoring with 17.8 points per game, trailing just Nebraska's Terran Petteway. A Second Team All-Big Ten selection a year ago, Newbill enters his senior season as a favorite for all-league honors. Fellow senior Ross Travis was the fourth-leading rebounder a year ago, coming up with an average of 7.0 per game with 5.1 coming from the defensive glass. Travis trails only Purdue's A.J. Hammons (7.4 rpg) as top returning rebounders.

RECORDS TO WATCH

SCORING

D.J. Newbill has 1,108 points after two seasons in the Blue and White and ranks 21st all-time in career scoring. With his junior point total (604) replicated, Newbill would enter the Top 4 at Penn State. The highest point total of a player after three seasons is 1,310, which ranks 14th all-time and was set by John Amaechi in 1993-95. With at least a 500-point season, Newbill would become just the second PSU player to do so in three-consecutive seasons, joining Talor Battle.

BLOCKS

Donovan Jack will begin his junior season two blocks away from entering Penn State's Top 10. He has 56 with all but three coming last season. His 53 blocks as a sophomore are the eighth-most in a single season and the most since the 1998-99 season. Only Calvin Booth, who owns positions 1-4, and John Amaechi (spots 5-7) rank above Jack.

Jordan Dickerson produced 29 blocks in the 22 games he was eligible to compete last season, an average of 1.3 per game. That average would have placed him among the Top 10 in the Big Ten last season had he reached the minimum number of games to be ranked.

ROOKIES LOOK TO MAKE IMPACT

Three new faces join the veteran core of Nittany Lions. Devin Foster, a junior college transfer, along with freshmen Shep Garner and Isaiah Washington as Penn State rookies. Garner (Chester, Pa.) and Washington (Williamsport, Pa.) bring the number of Pennsylvania natives on the roster to eight, including four from the Philadelphia area.

MONTMINY EARNS SCHOLARSHIP

Kevin Montminy was awarded a scholarship for the 2014-15 season, Patrick Chambers announced in early August. A three-year walk-on, Montminy has seen action in 40 career games over the last three seasons with 24 total points and 10 rebounds. With a 4.0 grade-point average in each of the last five semesters, Montminy is a Big Ten Distinguished Scholar, Academic All-Big Ten honoree and the team's Academic Award recipient.

CHARLESTON CLASSIC

The Nittany Lions are slated to take part in the 2014 Charleston Classic, Nov. 20-23 in Charleston, S.C. They will open play in the tourney by taking on Charlotte at 5 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 20 on ESPNU and then will face either South Carolina or Cornell on the second day of the three-day event. The remaining teams in the field include Akron, Drexel, Miami (Fla.), and Southern California.

OFFSEASON TRAINING

The Nittany Lions made headlines with their extensive offseason-training regimen. Strength coach Brandon Spayd designed a three-part workout challenge for team members called the Yoke Zone Challenge. Players pushed cars, crawled through sandpits and completed a number of demanding stations in an obstacle course setting. Kevin Montminy and Jordan Dickerson were the top pair among players completed the entire course each week.

Patrick Chambers and his staff also brought in The Program, a leadership development and team building program created and executed by former military personnel. Players completed two days of extensive mental and physical tasks designed to build better leaders and more cohesive teams.

CHAMBERS ADDS ANOTHER FORMER PLAYER TO STAFF

D.J. Irving, a four-year member of the men's basketball team at Boston University, joined the Penn State staff as a graduate manager for the 2014-15 season. He replaced Andrew Jones, who is an assistant coach with the Oklahoma City Thunder's D-League team. Irving is the fourth player coached by Chambers to join his staff. Assistant coach Dwayne Anderson and Ross Condon, director of operations, both played at Villanova with Chambers as an assistant and associate head coach. Irving came into the fold at Boston University and fellow PSU graduate manager Nicholas Colella played two seasons for Chambers as a Lion.

119TH SEASON OF BASKETBALL

Penn State will compete in its 119th season on the hardwood and its 23rd as a member of the Big Ten conference. The Lions began play in 1897 with a pair of contests vs. Bucknell, which returns to the schedule for the third year in a row. The Lions have made 13 postseason appearances in the last 26 years (4 NCAA, 8 NIT, 1 CBI) and a total of 20 (9 NCAA, 10 NIT, 1 CBI) overall.

Over the last three seasons, Patrick Chambers has reinvigorated Penn State basketball. Since being named the 12th head coach in program history June 6, 2011, the Philly native quickly energized his players and staff, as well as the Penn State fan base with his passion, enthusiasm and his team's all-out style of play.

He has seen his team's win total, both overall and in the power-packed Big Ten, climb each season, racking up a sweep of Top 25-ranked Ohio State and a road win at Indiana last season. In both victory and defeat, Chambers' teams are heralded for their work ethic, perseverance and relentless attitude.

During his time with the Nittany Lions, Chambers has guided three players to a combined five All-Big Ten honors, including Tim Frazier's first-team nod in 2011. Frazier ended his career as the all-time leader in assists at Penn State – a record Chambers holds to this date at his alma mater Philadelphia – before going on to earn a spot on the Boston Celtics training camp roster.

To Penn State students, Chambers is known around campus for his infectious energy. He ordered up a pair of golf carts and began making spur-of-the-moment trips around the University Park campus distributing t-shirts. In his first few years, he visited amusement parks, pep rallies, student groups, and classes and threw out first pitches. Chambers even went as far as to go behind the counter to serve free Big Macs to students at State College's downtown McDonald's and donned a Penn State football jersey and helmet to fire up the famed "Nittanyville" student campout.

The youngest of 12 children (nine boys, three girls) from a Philadelphia Irish Catholic family so large it ate dinner in shifts, Chambers' route to Penn State was anything but usual and stands as a testament to the values of family, faith and attitude, which he holds dear. It was a path shaped by 2011 Naismith Hall of Fame inductee Herb Magee, Philadelphia high school coaching legend Dan Dougherty and highly successful Villanova coach Jay Wright. It was also shaped by a life altering attack that nearly claimed his life 10 years prior to his accepting the Nittany Lion post.

Chambers rise in coaching has been meteoric. He served as a part-time assistant at Episcopal Academy (HS), Director of Operations at Villanova, assistant coach at Villanova, associate head coach on Jay Wright's 2009 NCAA Final Four team and head coach at Boston University in a short seven years prior to leading a Big Ten program. The dizzying pace is reflective of his no holds barred approach to every day.

PATRICK CHAMBERS

AT BOSTON UNIVERSITY

Chambers came to Penn State from Boston University, where in 2010-11 he led the Terriers to the America East Conference Championship and the program's first NCAA Tournament berth since 2002. He posted a 42-28 record in two years in his first head coaching stint at BU. He was the only BU coach in history to earn 20 wins in each of his first two seasons and the fastest to earn a conference championship in program history.

The Terriers earned a 21-14 mark for the second straight year under Chambers in 2010-11. Led by 2011 America East Player-of-the-Year and two-time scoring champion John Holland, BU fell after challenging No. 1 seed Kansas in the Terriers' first NCAA Tournament game since 2002. Chambers led BU to the semifinals of the College Basketball Invitational in 2009-10. The Terriers won at Oregon State and beat Morehead State in the CBI, marking BU's first post-season wins since 1959. BU also posted its first perfect home conference record since 1998.

Chambers stocked his Boston University teams with Philadelphia talent, including six players from the Philadelphia area in 2010-11, relying on long standing relationships and his first hand experience in the basketball community in the "City of Brotherly Love." He also energized a stagnant basketball fan base at the hockey-centric school.

AT VILLANOVA

A native of Newtown Square, Pa., Chambers previously played for and coached with two of the nation's most successful college coaches. From 2004-09, he was a member of Wright's staff at Villanova University, serving as associate head coach in 2008-09. He helped the Wildcats earn four NCAA Sweet 16 appearances and advance to the 2009 NCAA Final Four during his tenure. Chambers played for Magee at Philadelphia University (formerly Philadelphia Textile), helping Magee become college basketball's all-time victories leader (941) and a 2011 Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame inductee.

During Chambers five seasons on Wright's Villanova staff, he was instrumental in helping lead the Wildcats to a 126-45 record (.737), including the school's single-season win record of 30-8 in 2008-09. The Wildcats advanced to the NCAA Tournament all five seasons of Chambers' tenure and posted a 56-28 (.667) record in Big East Conference games. Chambers had responsibilities in all facets of the program, including recruiting, scouting, on-court teaching and player development. He was instrumental in building the Wildcats 2009 recruiting class that was ranked No. 3 in the nation by ESPN.com and brought in ESPNU Top 100 players Maalik Wayns, Dominic Cheek, Mouphtaou Yarou and Isaiah Armwood to Villanova.

Named Villanova's associate head coach in 2008, Chambers helped lead the Wildcats to the 2009 NCAA Final Four, the school's first in 24 years, and saw Villanova advance to the Sweet 16 for the fourth time in five NCAA appearances during his tenure. Villanova posted an 11-5 mark in the NCAA Tournament during Chambers' time on the Wildcat staff and won at least 22 games in each of his five seasons, including the 2009 senior class posting a school record 126 career victories.

Chambers also served as Villanova Director of Basketball Operations (2004-05) and as an assistant coach (2005-2008) under Wright, the 2009 Big East Coach-of-the-Year. Four Villanova players Chambers worked with played in the NBA and five other Wildcats from his tenure have played professionally overseas. He recruited four McDonald's All-Americans to Villanova.

PRIOR TO COLLEGIATE COACHING

Chambers was a standout guard under Magee, known as “The Shot Doctor,” at Philadelphia U. graduating from the University in 1994 with a degree in marketing and a minor in finance. He joined the NCAA Division II University’s basketball team as a walk-on in 1990 and went on to have an outstanding career, becoming the team’s starting point guard, earning first-team All-ECAC honors and leaving as the school record holder in assists with 709. Chambers helped lead the Rams to four NCAA Division II Sweet 16 appearances and two Elite Eight appearances.

Chambers began his coaching career with a one-year stint as an assistant coach at Delaware Valley (Pa.) College in 1995-96. He left coaching to pursue the family business, but returned in 1999 after being named the top varsity assistant coach at Episcopal Academy, a position he held through 2004. High School All-Americans Wayne Ellington (North Carolina) and Gerald Henderson (Duke) were among the players he helped develop at Episcopal Academy under coach Dan Dougherty.

Chambers himself played for Dougherty at Episcopal. Dougherty logged 621 victories at Episcopal, the most of any city high school coach, and also served collegiate coaching stints as the successor to Bob Knight at Army (1972-75) and as an assistant at Villanova (1967-72). Dougherty coached such standouts in the college game as Fran Dunphy, Bruiser Flint, Fran O’Hanlon and Jerome Allen.

THE CHAMBERS FAMILY

Three of Chambers’ 11 siblings are Penn State graduates -- brothers Chris and Joe and a sister, Megan, who resides in State College. Chambers’ older brother, Tim, was the 1984 Ivy League Player-of-the-Year as a defensive back on a Penn football team that won three-consecutive Ivy League titles. Another older brother, Paul, was a three-year starting point guard (1989-92) on the Penn basketball team and stands fifth all-time in career assists for the Quakers with 396.

Chambers and his wife, Courtney, have three children: Grace, Ryan and Caitlin.

MORE INFO: [CVC PENN STATE.ORG](http://CVC PENN STATE.ORG)

Patrick Chambers is enthusiastically leading Penn State's highly successful Coaches vs. Cancer organization pledging his 100 percent commitment to pushing the organization, which has raised over $2 million since its inception, to new heights.

Now embarking on its 19th year, Coaches vs. Cancer-Penn State consistently ranks among the Top 10 CVC organizations in the nation. It was started in 1995 under then head coach Bruce Parkhill and raises funds to support the American Cancer Society as well as the Bob Perks Fund (BPF), a local initiative that provides direct support for community members and families fighting cancer. CVC-Penn State sponsors a year-round program of events that not only raise funds but also serve to heighten awareness for those fighting the disease in the community. The flagship event of the CVC-Penn State program is the annual Coaches vs. Cancer Golf Tournament. The 18th annual event took place on May 30, 2013 at the Penn State Blue and White golf courses.

Over 300 golfers and 60-plus groups participated in the golf event with more than 70 coaches, former Penn State athletes and regional luminaries served as captains. Amongst them were a handful of Penn State head coaches that joined Chambers at the event, in addition to former Penn State basketball standouts and coaches, former members of the football program, local media personalities and Big Ten Network analyst Shon Morris. The primary sponsors of the event were HRI, Inc., McCrossin, Centre Concrete and Mount Nittany Health with an additional 70 sponsors to make last year's tournament a success.

Another major event is the Reverse Car Drawing held each fall at Medlar Field at Lubrano Park, home of the Penn State baseball team and the State College Spikes. This year, the event raised more than $50,000. The eighth annual event, held Sept. 19, had 702 people turnout and one winner had the choice between a Lincoln MKZ and Ford Boss 302.

Penn State also annually holds Coaches vs. Cancer Day at one home game a year, scheduled this season for Feb. 14, 2015 vs. Maryland. The event brings together cancer survivors and cancer fighting groups from across the community.

CVC-Penn State also feature a student group that raises funds throughout the year, collecting donations at home games in the Jordan Center and conducting an annual CVC 5K Fun Run/Walk on campus. A new addition to the fundraising efforts is the State College Brew Expo held annually during the summer at Tussey Mountain.

Funds raised through the American Cancer Society's Coaches vs. Cancer support the ACS mission to help people Stay Well, Get Well, Find Cures, and Fight Back, both on a local and national level. Due in part to the efforts of Coaches vs. Cancer-Penn State, the American Cancer Society provides direct assistance to more than 200 Centre County residents each year.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH BRIAN DALY

Brian Daly is in his fourth season as a member of the Penn State basketball coaching staff and second serving as an associate head coach. After serving his first two seasons in an assistant coaching capacity at Penn State, he was promoted in June of 2013 to his current post. The Philadelphia native previously worked with head coach Patrick Chambers at Boston University and was a standout prep player in Philadelphia and later at Saint Joseph’s.

Daly joined the Boston University program for the 2009-10 season as an assistant coach after working the sidelines the previous four years as the head coach of the Monsignor Bonner High School boys’ varsity team in Philadelphia. He was promoted to associate head coach at BU in May of 2011 after being involved in all of the program’s operations, including practice and game planning, academic advising and on-the-floor coaching, specifically with the post players.

While leading Monsignor Bonner, his high school alma mater, Daly guided the team to the Catholic League playoffs in each of his four seasons and increased the team’s winning percentage in each of his first three seasons. The program had missed the playoffs in the previous five seasons before his tenure. During his tenure, he was elected President of the Coaches Association for the 2008 and 2009 seasons.

A four-year letterman at Saint Joseph’s from 1988-92, Daly played under then assistant coach and now Hawks head coach Phil Martelli and helped the Hawks win two Big 5 championships. Daly graduated from Saint Joseph’s in 1992 with a degree in food marketing.

Daly was named the Philadelphia Player of the Year after averaging better than 20 ppg during his senior season at Monsignor Bonner. He was subsequently inducted into the school’s Hall of Fame after finishing as the school’s second all-time scorer with 1,253 points in three years. Daly returned to serve as an assistant coach at his high school alma mater between 1996-2002 before departing for an assistant coaching position at Division III Arcadia University for the 2002-2003 season. While working at Arcadia, he continued his studies at Saint Joseph’s and earned a master’s degree in education in 2003.

Daly and his wife, Tracie, have three children - Ryan, Colin and Keri.

KEITH URGO

Keith Uργο is in his third season as a member of the Penn State coaching staff and first serving as an associate head coach. Uργο served for two seasons as an assistant coach at Penn State before being promoted to his current post in June of 2013. He is in his sixth season overall in collegiate coaching and formerly worked with Patrick Chambers as a member of the Villanova coaching staff.

“I worked with coach Uργο during my time at Villanova,” Chambers said. “His energy, enthusiasm and work ethic are second to none. He is a DC guy that understands the high major level and what it takes to achieve success.”

A 2002 graduate of Fairfield University, Uργο played varsity basketball and lacrosse for the Stags. He spent the last four seasons on Jay Wright’s staff at Villanova serving for two of those seasons alongside Chambers.

A native of Washington, D.C., Uργο joined the Wildcats in 2007 as the video coordinator, where he served for one season before being moved up to the role of director of basketball operations in 2008. He spent two seasons in that position, including 2008-09, when Villanova reached the NCAA Final Four. In 2010-11, he served as an assistant coach. The Wildcats made the NCAA Tournament every season while Uργο was on the staff including a Sweet 16 appearance in 2008 to go with the 2009 Final Four.

Uργο came to Villanova from the basketball coaching staff at Gonzaga High School in Washington, D.C. From 2004-06, he coached the junior varsity to a 32-7 record and assisted with the national powerhouse varsity.

Uργο earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Fairfield University. Following graduation, he developed a non-profit organization, “Playing for Peace, Inc.,” designed to aide in conflict resolution. The organization is based in four locales: Durbin, South Africa, Northern Ireland, the West Bank in the Middle East and Cypress, Greece.

His role there took him first to South Africa and then, with six other recent graduates, to Northern Ireland, where he would remain for 18 months. The organization remains in existence today and now goes by the title “Peace Players International.” It was awarded the 2007 Arthur Ashe ESPY Award by the network for its continuing efforts abroad.

ASSISTANT COACH DWAYNE ANDERSON

Dwayne Anderson, a standout leader of Villanova’s 2009 NCAA Final Four team, joined the Nittany Lion coaching staff as an assistant coach in July of 2013 and is in his second season with the program and first in collegiate coaching. In just a year as a collegiate assistant coach, Anderson has made a name for himself on the recruiting trail, concentrating on the D.C./Maryland/Virginia area.

Anderson took on his first collegiate coaching position after four highly successful seasons playing professionally in Europe. A 2009 graduate of Villanova University with a degree in sociology, Anderson was coached by Chambers, a former Associate Head Coach in the Villanova program, on highly successful Wildcat teams that made four straight NCAA appearances and reached the Sweet 16 three times.

A native of Silver Spring, Md., a suburb of Washington, D.C., Anderson played his final professional season for S.Oliver Baskets in Wurzburg, Germany, the last of three stops in a four-year professional career that also saw him play for professional clubs BG Gottingen in Germany and Morpho Basket Piacenza in Italy. A two-time German All-Star selection (2011 & 2013), he posted 13.5 points and 7.2 rebounds per game in 2012-13 while leading S.Oliver Baskets in scoring, rebounding and steals to earn his second All-Star selection. He led Piacenza in rebounding in 2011-12 and earned selection to the EuroChallenge First Team (2010), Eurocup Top 8 Players (2011) and German All-Star Team (2011) during his two years with BG Gottingen.

Anderson also served as a volunteer coach for BG74, an under-13 and under-18 youth program, in Gottingen, Germany from 2009-11 and launched his own T-shirt and apparel brand called ROBY - Rock Out Be You in 2012.

A 6-6, 215-pound wing, Anderson emerged as a corner stone team leader during his junior and senior seasons at Villanova serving as a team captain on Wildcat teams that advanced to the Sweet 16 (2008) and Final Four (2009). A three-year letterman, he played in 23 or more games in each of his last three seasons with the Wildcats and was also part of a team that reached the NCAA Elite Eight in 2006.

Anderson missed the first seven games of his senior season with a foot fracture, but returned to play in 31 contests and average 9.0 points and 6.2 rebounds per game while helping lead Villanova to the NCAA Final Four where the Wildcats lost to eventual champion North Carolina. He averaged 13.2 points and 8.6 rebounds per game in the Big East and NCAA Tournaments his senior year and scored a career high 25 points in an NCAA first round victory over American. Anderson finished his Villanova career having logged 573 points, 388 rebounds, 107 steals and 70 threes in 95 games and 42 career starts.

Anderson posted 19.7 ppg as a senior for St. John’s High School in Washington, D.C. and went on to attend St. Thomas More Prep (Oakdale, Conn.) where he posted 23 points and 10 rebounds per game in one season before matriculating to Villanova.

Anderson is married to the former Lindsay Davis, who was a diver at Villanova in 2006-09.

ROSS CONDON

Ross Condon is in his fourth season as the Nittany Lions’ director of basketball operations. Condon previously served as an assistant coach under Patrick Chambers at Boston University and was a player at Villanova during Chambers’ tenure there as an assistant coach.

Condon spent two seasons at Boston University as an assistant coach on Chambers’ staff helping guide the Terriers to back-to-back 21-win seasons and post-season appearances both years. The Terriers went 21-14 in 2010-11, winning the America East Conference Championship and advancing to their first NCAA Tournament since 2002. The Terriers also went 21-14 in 2009-10 and earned a CBI tournament berth, reaching the semifinals.

Condon was responsible for assisting with all aspects of the Terrier basketball program, including recruiting, game and practice preparation, scouting and player development. Condon worked specifically with Terrier guards including 2011 America East Player-of-the-Year John Holland, first-team all-conference guard Darryl Partin and all-conference rookie honoree D.J. Irving, who is now a graduate manager with the Penn State program.

Prior to BU, Condon spent two years as the director of basketball operations for Radford University working under 2009 Big South Coach of the Year Brad Greenberg. Condon played an important role in the biggest turn around in league history, including a 2009 Big South Championship and the Highlanders’ trip to the 2009 NCAA Tournament. Radford finished the 2008-09 season with a 21-12 (15-3 Big South) mark after posting a 10-20 (5-9) record the previous season.

A walk-on member of Villanova’s basketball team from 2003-04 to 2006-07, Condon played the final three of those seasons under Chambers who was a Wildcat assistant coach at the time. While with the Wildcats, Condon was part of a squad that captured the 2005-06 Big East regular season title and made three straight appearances in the NCAA Tournament, reaching the Sweet 16 in 2005 and the Elite Eight in 2006. Following his junior year at Villanova, Condon was selected to represent the United States at the 2006 World Maccabi Games in Australia, where he contributed to a team gold medal.

The Springfield, Va., native and former all-state high school player was an exemplary student-athlete at Villanova. Condon was a three-year selection to the Big East All-Academic Team and also served as the men’s basketball team’s representative to the university’s student-athlete advisory committee. He earned his bachelor’s degree in business administration from Villanova in May of 2007.

Devlin came to Penn State after four successful seasons as an assistant coach at the College of Southern Idaho. He worked alongside 2011 NJCAA National Coach of the Year Steve Gosar at CSI helping to guide the Golden Eagles to 105-32 record, back-to-back Region 18 regular season and tournament championships (2011 and 2012) and a 2011 NJCAA National Championship during his tenure. In four seasons at CSI, Devlin coached more than 18 athletes that went on to play Division I basketball, including 2011 NJCAA National Player of the Year Pierre Jackson who went on to lead the Big 12 in scoring and assists during a standout career at Baylor University. He worked with four NJCAA All-American honorees and two Region 18 Players of the Year.

A 2005 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh with a degree in social sciences, Devlin is making his fifth stop in a career that spans eight years. Prior to his tenure at Southern Idaho, Devlin worked for a season at Montrose Christian School in Maryland under two-time National High School Coach of the Year and Hall of Fame high school coach Stu Vetter.

In one season at the powerhouse prep school, which he also attended for a year and is the alma mater of NBA All-Star Kevin Durant, he helped the team to a 21-3 record and was integral in the recruiting of top players such as current Toronto Raptor Terrence Ross (the No. 8 overall pick in the 2012 NBA Draft) and Villanova standout Mouphtaou Yarou to the school. Montrose competed in the inaugural ESPN RISE National High School Invitational and was ranked No. 1 nationally by the Washington Post before finishing as the No. 6 ranked team in the country by USA Today.

Devlin previously spent a season at Hagerstown Community College (Md.) serving first as an assistant coach and then becoming interim head coach at mid-season. He worked under coach Terry Truax, a former longtime assistant under Dean Smith at North Carolina, helping to guide the team to a 23-8 record after the program posted an 8-22 mark in the previous campaign.

Devlin began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Bowling Brook Preparatory School in Maryland.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE
Office of the Commissioner
1500 West Higgins Road, Park Ridge, Ill. 60068
847.696.1010
Fax: 847.696.1150; Website: www.bigten.org

PREMIER ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS
The Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) is an academic consortium of all 14 Big Ten universities and the University of Chicago, which is widely considered to be the model for effective and voluntary collaboration among top research universities. Every CIC institution ranks among the top 86 universities in the nation according to the 2013 Academic Ranking of World Universities, including six in the top 25. The Big Ten leads all conferences with nearly 1,600 Academic All-Americans, including 40 in the last academic year. In 2012, CIC institutions had over $10 billion in research expenditures, $4 billion more than any other conference.

A HISTORY OF ATHLETIC SUCCESS
During the 2013-14 season, current Big Ten institutions claimed seven national championships: Maryland women's lacrosse; Michigan men's gymnastics; Ohio State open pistol and women's rowing, and Penn State fencing, volleyball and wrestling. Over the last 10 years, current Big Ten institutions have won national titles in 18 different sports, including basketball, bowling, cross country, fencing, field hockey, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, indoor track and field, lacrosse, pistol, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, synchronized swimming, volleyball and wrestling.

BROAD-BASED PROGRAMMING
The Big Ten administers nearly $200 million in direct financial aid to almost 9,500 student-athletes for more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams in 42 different sports. The Big Ten sponsors 28 official conference sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the debut of lacrosse this academic year. The Big Ten leads the nation in total student-athletes and participation opportunities and sponsors more official sports than all conferences other than the Ivy League. Almost 1,400 Big Ten student-athletes and coaches have participated in the Olympics, winning at least 480 medals, including nearly 250 gold.

PASSIONATE FOLLOWING
The Big Ten leads all conferences with 5.7 million alumni and more than 520,000 students. Each year more than 10 million patrons attend Big Ten home contests, as the conference leads the nation in attendance for men's basketball, hockey, volleyball and wrestling.

EXTENSIVE TELEVISION EXPOSURE
Through the Big Ten's media agreements with BTN, ABC/ESPN, CBS, FOX and NBC Sports Network, more than 1,200 Big Ten events are produced and distributed nationally on an annual basis. BTN will be in 60 million homes by the start of the 2014 football season. The network is carried by all major cable, satellite and telco providers and is also available via BTN2Go on smartphones, tablets and the internet.

2013-14 SEASON REVIEW

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- With 16 wins, Penn State and head coach Patrick Chambers reached a victory mark topped just three times in this millennium (21, 2000-01; 27, 2008-09; 19, 2010-11) ... The six Big Ten wins have been topped just once in the previous four seasons.
- Penn State finished the regular season first in the Big Ten in two-point percentage defense (45.1) in conference action after holding eight B1G opponents to shooting percentages at or below 40%. The Lions were sixth in the Big Ten in total field-goal defense with opponents hitting 41 percent of their shots.
- The Lions' five road wins, including three in the Big Ten, were the most since 2008-09 when they won six. Penn State has won three Big Ten road games just seven times in 21 previous seasons in the conference. Penn State had equal number of home/away B1G wins (3).
- Penn State had six one-possession games in Big Ten play, the most of any conference team. Nine of Penn State's league games were decided by a combined 25 points (average of 2.8).
- The Lions went 5-7 on the season in games decided by five or fewer points, with the wins coming vs. Hampton in the CBI, Nebraska, Indiana and Ohio State (twice).
- The Lions trailed by double-digits in three of five Big Ten games won and were at an average deficit of 10.2 between all of them. They battled back from 11 points in both meetings with Ohio State and 13 points at Indiana Feb. 12. The 13-point deficit is the largest margin overcome for a road win since Feb. 4, 2006 at Illinois when PSU was down 16.
- Penn State had two players average double figures with the team producing 70.9 points per game and 65.3 in conference play, the highest-scoring offensive marks since the 2000-01 team put up 76.8 and 73.8 points per contest.

- The Lions swept Ohio State for the first time since 1998, becoming just the second team to beat the Buckeyes twice in the regular season in the last five years (MSU, 2012) and the first unranked team to do so since Minnesota in 2005 ... Penn State was the only unranked team to sweep a ranked team in the Big Ten this season.
- Penn State defeated both Ohio State and Indiana on the road in the same season for the first time in program history.
- The Nittany Lion defense held Northwestern to 32 points in Penn State's 59-32 win over the Wildcats in Evanston. NU's point total was the fewest allowed by Penn State to a Big Ten team in program history and the fewest allowed to a Division I opponent since March 1, 1952 vs. Pittsburgh (PSU, 24-9). The Lions gave up 26 points to Division III Juniata in 1989.

NON-CONFERENCE

- Seven different PSU players led the team or tied for the lead in scoring through the 13-game non-conference schedule: Tim Frazier (6 games), D.J. Newbill (3 games), Johnson, Donovan Jack, Ross Travis, Allen Roberts and Brandon Taylor (1 game).
- The Lions averaged 81.2 points per game, more than 17 points more than they scored during non-conference play last season (64.0). Penn State produced at least 70 points in all but two non-conference games this season and topped 90 points on three occasions.
- Penn State had its most wins (9) before B1G play since 2008-09 (11).
- The 6-1 start was its best under head coach Patrick Chambers and overall since 2008-09 when the Nittany Lions opened 7-1.
- The loss to Ole Miss Nov. 30 snapped a five-game winning streak, the longest for the program since the start of the 2008-09 campaign when the Lions won their first five games.

INDIVIDUAL MILESTONES

- D.J. Newbill (17.8 ppg) and Tim Frazier (14.9 ppg) were ranked second and 11th, respectively, in the Big Ten at season's end, making up one of the highest scoring, rebounding and assisting backcourt duos in the nation.
- With a 23-point outing vs. Wisconsin March 2, D.J. Newbill became Penn State's 31st 1,000-point scorer and now ranks 21st all-time in career scoring with 1,108 points.
- Newbill also reached 500 points for the season vs. the Badgers and ended the year with 604, the seventh-highest single-season total in program history.

POSTGAME NOTES

- Penn State is 1-2 against teams ranked in the Top 25 this season at the time of meeting (L, Michigan State 12/31 & 2/6 and W, Ohio State 1/29).
- The loss ended a three-game Big Ten winning streak for Penn State, the longest in conference play for the Lions since 2009.
- Two PSU players finished in double-digits (Tim Frazier – 22, D.J. Newbill – 17). The Lions are 1-6 when just two players tally 10 or more points.
- With one assist, Frazier tied the all-time career record at Penn State also held by Freddie Barnes (600; 1989-92). He also owns two positions in the Top 10 in single-season assists and now is No. 10 all-time in Big Ten history with 600. He needs 13 more to pass Jeff Horner (612; Iowa, 2002-06).
- With 22 points, Frazier led the team in scoring for the 10th time this season. He now has 1,411 points, moving closer to the No. 8 spot all-time at Penn State held by Tom Hovasse (1,459; 1986-89).
- Frazier finished 9-14 from the field, for a 64 percent showing, his sixth outing of the season above 60 percent.
- Frazier tallied three 3-pointers, his fourth game this season with multiple treys.
- The 22 points mark Frazier's seventh 20-plus point outing of the season and 13th for his career. They mark the most for the fifth-year guard since he had 24 in the overtime loss to Princeton Dec. 14.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - Tim Frazier scored on a driving layup with 6.1 seconds to go Wednesday night, capping a remarkable rally to give Penn State a 66-65 victory at Indiana. Indiana led 64-53 with 3:19 to go, but on a night Indiana (14-10, 4-7) committed 20 turn-overs and struggled to inbound the ball late, Penn State closed the game on a 13-1 run. Twice in the final 15 seconds, Penn State stole inbound passes with a chance to tie the score or take the lead. The first one slipped away when Ross Travis missed 1 of 2 free throws, but Frazier bailed him out with the layup that gave Penn State its only lead of the game.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Junior D.J. Newbill posted 23 points and fifth-senior Tim Frazier notched 16 points as the Penn State basketball team upset No. 22 Ohio State for the second time in 2014. Free throws proved important down the stretch with the teams trading freebies in eight of the final 10 possessions. A 3-for-4 effort at the line by Frazier at the end of the game made all the difference and sent the Lions out on top as OSU (22-7, 9-7 Big Ten) was unable to overcome the deficit.

- PSU claims its first season sweep over Ohio State since 1997-98
- The Lions post first sweep of any Big Ten team since 2010-11 (Northwestern, Minnesota)
- The Lions improve to 2-3 vs. ranked teams in 2013-14 ... The last time they won multiple games vs. ranked foes was 2010-11 (3).
- Penn State has had six one-possession games in Big Ten play, the most of any conference team ... The Lions are 3-3 in those games, winning each of the last three (1/29 at Ohio State, 2/12 at Indiana and 2/27 vs. Ohio State)
- The Lions trailed by as many as 11 before taking their first lead of the game at 15:15 in the second half (36-35) ... Despite three ties, the Buckeyes would not lead the remainder of the way ... Penn State also trailed by 11 in the win at Ohio State Jan. 29
- The Nittany Lions finished with 15 second-chance points off seven offensive rebounds ... Only one offensive board did not result in a PSU score
- Penn State outrebounded Ohio State 34-25 and is 9-2 when tallying more boards than its opponent ... The Buckeyes entered the game averaging 34.1 rpg, but were held to 25
- The win came a year to the day of the Lions' upset of No. 4 Michigan, also on Senior Night

He stands 20th all-time on the Penn State scoring charts never averaging less than 15.3 ppg on a season. Weiss’ 38 points vs. Duke in 1965 still stand tied for the sixth-best single-game scoring mark in PSU history. A 1965 All-Pennsylvania selection, Weiss was a three-year starter who helped lead State to a 51-16 record in three seasons, including a 20-4 mark and NCAA Tournament appearance in 1965. He went on to coach 26 seasons in the NBA, including head coaching stops at Seattle, San Antonio, Atlanta and the LA Clippers.

BURKE HERMANN

Years: 1916-17 & 1920-32 (15)
Record: 148-74 (.667)
Burke M. "Dutch" Hermann, Penn State's first basketball coach, retired in 1956, after a nearly 50-year affiliation with the University. A 1912 Penn State graduate, Hermann guided the Nittany Lions from 1916 until 1932, with the exception of two years of service as a lieutenant during World War I. The team did not have a coach in 1918, however; Hugo Bezdek served as coach in 1919. Hermann also served as freshman football coach during those years.

Hermann, who hailed from Middleburg, Pa., lettered four years in basketball, served as captain in 1910 and lettered as a football player in 1911. He compiled a record of 148-74 during 15 seasons as head basketball coach. Hermann's teams were especially dominating over a six-year period from the start of the 1919-20 season through the '24-25 season. The Lions were 73-13 during that stretch and, in 1921, outscored their opponents by a two-to-one margin.

As a professor of history, Hermann served on Penn State's Athletic Advisory Board for many years. He was awarded the Lion's Paw Medal by that organization's Alumni Association in 1968. Hermann died in 1977.

HEAD COACH
HUGO BEZDEK

Year: 1919 (1)
Record: 11-2 (.846)

Hugo Bezdek, a native of Prague, Czechoslovakia, earned numerous accolades as Penn State's football coach from 1918-29. He also served as athletic director from 1918-36, and directed the basketball team for one season (1919) while then-head coach Burke Hermann served during WW I.

Bezdek's 1919 Penn State team went 11-2 and finished the year with eight straight wins.

As athletic director, Bezdek initiated fund raising in 1918 to build Rec Hall and 10 years later the building was constructed for $572,260.

Bezdek gained All-America status at Chicago, where he was a fullback in football and a second baseman on the baseball team. His collegiate coaching experience included head football coaching jobs at Oregon (1906, 13-17), where his team defeated Pennsylvania, 14-0, in the 1917 Rose Bowl, and Arkansas (1908-12). He also managed the Pittsburgh Pirates major league baseball club (1917-19).

Bezdek, who died in 1952, posted a 65-30-11 record during 12 seasons as head football coach at Penn State. He was named to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1954 and the Helms Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1960.

EARL LESLIE

Years: 1933-36 (4)

A 1922 graduate of the University of Oregon, Earl "Spike" Leslie coached the Penn State basketball team for four seasons from 1933-36.

A three-year football letterman at Oregon (1919-21), he was named to the Pacific Coast Conference first team as a tackle in 1920. Leslie earned his master's degree from Columbia.

Despite reduced schedules in 1933 and 1934, Leslie's first two teams posted winning records. His 1934-35 outfit raced out to an 8-3 start, before dropping its final six games. In 1935-36, Penn State joined the "fast" Eastern Intercollegiate Conference and went 0-10, 6-11 overall.

Highlights during Leslie's tenure included four straight wins over Army and a rare road win at Pennsylvania. He achieved a composite mark of 29-28.

Leslie returned to Oregon as a teacher and coach at Coquille High School, southwest of Eugene. He remained in that capacity until he died on Oct. 12, 1957. The Coquille football stadium is named in his honor.

HEAD COACH
JOHN LAWThER

Years: 1937-49 (13)
Record: 150-93 (.617)
NCAA tournament: 1-1

Raised on a farm in Carroll County, Ohio, John Lawther earned national recognition as one of the leading proponents of zone defenses during 23 seasons as a coach at Westminster College and Penn State.

A 1919 Westminster graduate, Dr. Lawther retired from the Penn State faculty in 1965 following a long and distinguished career in secondary and higher education. As basketball coach from 1937 until 1949, he compiled a 150-93 record. Lawther's first team posted a 6-4 Eastern Conference mark after a 0-10 league slate the previous year. His 1942 team went 18-3 and advanced to the NCAA East Regional, defeating Big Ten champ Illinois.

Lawther had a great running feud with animated Pittsburgh coach Doc Carlson, who despised the zone which Lawther favored. When the two teams met Jan. 15, 1944, in the Steel City, Pittsburgh froze the ball and the resulting 15-12 Penn State win grabbed national headlines. Great anticipation surrounded the rematch as Carlson attacked the Lions' zone and lost, 35-29.

In 10 seasons at Westminster, Lawther's teams compiled an impressive 166-35 mark. His most memorable moment coaching the Titans came on Dec. 29, 1934, when he guided them to a 37-33 win over undefeated St. John's in the first college basketball double-header at Madison Square Garden.

PSU's wartime coach, Lawther was elected to the NAIA Basketball Hall of Fame in 1962 and is a member of the Helms Foundation Hall of Fame. Lawther's winning percentage (317-127, 71.4 percent) still ranks among the top 50 all-time in Division I.

ELMER GROSS

Years: 1950-54 (5)

Record: 80-40 (.667)

NCAA tournament: 2 (4-3); 1954 Final Four

Munhall, Pa., native Elmer Gross served as John Lawther's assistant for four years and assumed the head coaching position from Lawther following the 1948-49 season.

Captain of Penn State's 1942 NCAA team, Gross directed the Nittany Lions to an 80-40 record and two NCAA Tournament berths. He used Lawther's sliding-zone defense and added a fast-break offense which saw the Nittany Lions top 1,000 points for the first time in 1950.

His 1954 squad, paced by All-America center Jesse Arnette, placed third in the NCAA Tournament, finishing No. 9 in the final AP poll. The Lions shocked eighth-ranked Louisiana State and ended Notre Dame's 18-game winning streak to advance to Kansas City for the Final Four. Gross was praised for masterful use of his bench and a full-court press which confused tourney opponents.

Penn State has had two teams finish in the nation's Top 10 (1942: No. 10 Dunkel Index) and Gross was a key figure on both.

A World War II Purple Heart veteran, Gross was wounded in 1944, following one of the early amphibious landings on the coast of France. He returned to PSU as a graduate assistant coach in 1945 and earned his master's degree in 1947. He was the first coach in NCAA tourney history (1952) to also have played in the tournament (1942). Dr. Gross retired from Penn State in 1978 and died in Sun City, Ariz., in 2007.

JOHN EGLI

Years: 1955-68 (14)

Record: 187-135 (.581)

Postseason: 2 NCAA (1-3), 1 NIT (0-1)

The all-time winningest coach in Penn State basketball history, John Egli, like his predecessor, Elmer Gross, was a John Lawther disciple. In 14 seasons at the helm, Egli guided the Nittany Lions to an overall mark of 187-135, including NCAA bids in 1955 and 1965 and an NIT berth in 1966.

A native of Williamsport, Pa., Egli was a co-captain on the 1943 Penn State basketball team and was named to the NCAA East Regional all-tournament team in 1942.

Egli entered military service in 1943. He received the Purple Heart after being wounded at Bastogne on Christmas Day, 1944, and was hospitalized in England for six months. In 1947, he was appointed instructor of physical education and director of the intramural and varsity athletic programs at Penn State-DuBois.

Two years later, Egli was named assistant coach at University Park under Elmer Gross. After five seasons, he was elevated to head coach in 1954-55. His first team topped 2,000 points for the first time in school history. He was one of the nation's foremost authorities on the tactics and strategy of the zone defense. His teams ran off a string of 15-5, 16-7, 20-4 and 18-6 records between 1963 and 1966.

In 1962, Egli presented the sliding zone defense at the National Association of Basketball Coaches convention in Louisville, Ky. Four years later, he was installed as the fourth vice president of the NABC. His book, Sliding Zone Defenses for Winning Basketball, still is used by many coaches. Egli died in 1982.

Egli has been posthumously inducted into the Pennsylvania and Clearfield County Sports Halls of Fame.

HEAD COACH
JOHN BACH

Years: 1969-78 (10)

Record: 122-121 (.502)

A 1948 Fordham graduate, John Bach was considered one of the giants in the coaching profession. He arrived at Penn State in 1968, after 18 seasons as head coach and 11 years as athletic director at his alma mater.

A schoolboy star at St. John's Prep in Brooklyn, N.Y., Bach's collegiate playing career was interrupted by World War II and four years of service as a Naval officer.

He played two seasons of professional basketball with the Boston Celtics and Hartford before returning to Fordham as head coach. He guided the Rams to an overall mark of 292-193 and appearances in two NCAA Tournaments and five NITs.

At Penn State, Bach's teams were renowned for their pressure man-to-man defense with four squads ranked in the nation's top 20 in scoring defense. His teams posted back-to-back records of 17-8 and 15-8 in 1972 and 1973 respectively, behind Brooklyn native Ron Brown. He coached Penn State through 1977-78.

Bach served as Henry Iba's assistant at the 1972 Olympic Games in Munich, when the U.S. lost the controversial title game to the Soviet Union. Following a stint as head coach of the Golden State Warriors (1983-86), he served as an assistant coach to Phil Jackson and the three-time NBA champion (1991-93) Chicago Bulls. Bach was inducted into the NIT Hall of Fame in March, 1995.

DICK HARTER

Years: 1979-83 (5)

Record: 79-61 (.564)

Postseason: NIT (0-1)

Dick Harter sparked a rebirth of basketball at Penn State when he was appointed head coach for the 1978-79 season. He directed the Nittany Lions to the 1980 NIT, the school's first postseason appearance in 14 years.

A native of Pottstown, Pa., Harter served as a lieutenant in the U.S. Marine Corps for three years following graduation from Pennsylvania in 1953. He was the freshman athletic director at Penn for seven years (1958-65) before a one-year stint as head basketball coach at Rider, producing a 16-9 season. Harter returned to Penn as head coach for the 1966-67 school year and in five seasons fashioned an 88-44 mark, including a 25-2 NCAA team in 1970 and a 28-1 NCAA squad in 1971.

He left Penn for Oregon in 1971 and in six seasons in Eugene guided the Ducks to a 113-81 mark and three NIT appearances.

He joined the NBA coaching ranks as an assistant to Chuck Daly with the Detroit Pistons, and later became the first head coach of the Charlotte Hornets (1988-89).

HEAD COACH
BRUCE PARKHILL

Years: 1984-95 (12)

Record: 181-169 (.517)

Postseason: 1 NCAA (1-1); 4 NIT (9-4)

A State College native, Bruce Parkhill directed Penn State into a new era — the Big Ten Conference. His patience was rewarded between 1989-92 when his teams compiled an overall mark of 87-40 and advanced to post-season play each year. His third Big Ten team finished 21-11 in 1994-95.

He began his coaching career in 1972 as a graduate assistant at Virginia after starring in three sports at Loch Haven University. At age 28, Parkhill was named head basketball coach at William & Mary and in six seasons registered an 89-75 mark.

He was appointed head coach at Penn State prior to the 1983-84 season. Building from the bottom, his Nittany Lion teams demonstrated steady progress, going 53-84 in his first five seasons and then improving to 20-12, 25-9, 21-11 and 21-8. In 1990, Parkhill was named Atlantic 10 Conference Coach of the Year and the Lions went on to place third in the National Invitation Tournament. His 1991 club captured the Atlantic 10 championship and stunned UCLA in the NCAA Tournament

All 43 seniors who played for Parkhill at Penn State graduated. He resigned on Sept. 6, 1995. Parkhill is second in Penn State history in coaching wins.

HEAD COACH
JERRY DUNN

Years: 1996-2003 (7)

Record: 117-121 (.492)

Postseason: 2 NCAA (2-2); 2 NIT (8-2)

Jerry Dunn became the 10th head coach in Penn State history just before the start of the 1995-96 season. A long-time assistant under Bruce Parkhill, Dunn stepped in and guided Penn State to the NCAA Tournament and its first top 10 national ranking in his first season. He was the NABC District 3 Coach of the Year that season as well. The Lions were 21-7 that season, finishing a school best 12-6 in Big Ten play.

In 1997-98, Dunn guided Penn State to an 8-8 finish in the Big Ten and a superb post-season run that culminated with a spot in the NIT championship game. He became the fastest coach in Penn State history to reach 50 career wins that season as well. The Nittany Lions ended the year 19-13.

Two years later, Penn State advanced to the Big Ten Tournament semifinals and once again earned a trip to Madison Square Garden for the NIT semifinals. The Nittany Lions went 19-16 that season.

The 2000-01 season was a special and historic one for Penn State as the Nittany Lions again advanced to the Big Ten Tournament semifinals and earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Penn State, the No. 7 seed, downed No. 10 Providence in the first round before shocking No. 2 seed North Carolina in the next round. Perhaps the biggest win in school history, the victory vaulted Penn State to its first-ever appearance in the 'modern day' NCAA Sweet 16. The Lions ended that campaign 21-12 and earned a post-season top 25 ranking (No. 25 Coaches Poll). Dunn became the fastest coach in school history to reach 100 wins that year. He resigned on March 17, 2003.

ED DeCHELLIS

Years: 2004-2011 (7)

Record: 114-138 (.452)

Postseason: 1 NCAA (0-1); 2 NIT (5-1)

2009 NIT CHAMPIONS

Ed DeChellis became the 11th head coach in Penn State history prior to the start of the 2003-04 season after a successful seven-year stint at East Tennessee State that resulted in three conference titles and the program's first NCAA appearance in a decade.

An assistant coach at Penn State for 10 years under Bruce Parkhill and then Jerry Dunn, DeChellis guided his own Penn State program to the Nittany Lions' first-ever national tournament title (2009 NIT) and three post-season appearances, including the program's first NCAA appearance in a decade in 2011. DeChellis' teams also posted a school-record 27 wins in 2009 and reached the program's first-ever Big Ten Tournament Championship game in 2011.

DeChellis was named the 2009 Big Ten Coach of the Year after guiding a Lion team that started three sophomores and played seven underclassmen to a 27-11 record and 10-8 mark for a fourth place finish in the Big Ten. Penn State tied a program record with 21 regular season wins and posted its second most Big Ten wins and second-best Big Ten finish in program history. The Lions would equal the fourth place finish in 2011 going 9-9 in the conference.

DeChellis recruited and coached Penn State's first three members of the Big Ten All-Freshman team, including 2006 Big Ten Freshman of the Year Jamelle Cornley. He also brought to the program Talor Battle who would go on to become Penn State's all-time leading scorer with 2,213 points and just the fourth player in NCAA history to record 2,000 points, 600 rebounds and 500 assists. Battle became the first Lion to earn first-team All-Big Ten, NABC All-District and USBWA All-District honors in multiple seasons and the first since 1996 and just the sixth-ever to earn All-American recognition (AP - honorable-mention).

DeChellis guided Penn State to the post season in his third season at the helm as the Lions went 15-15 and reached the 2006 NIT despite playing the youngest and smallest line-up in the Big Ten. This after taking over a program that had seven wins in each of the two seasons prior to his arrival.

A graduate of Penn State (1982), DeChellis also survived a battle with bladder cancer during his tenure and was a driving force pushing Penn State's Coaches vs. Cancer program to more than $1.5 million in funds raised by the end of his tenure. DeChellis was named the 2006 National Coaches vs. Cancer Man of the Year as he turned the Penn State program into a year-round fundraising organization with multiple events and fund raising surpassing $200,000 a year to rank among the top five programs in the nation. The yearly total marked more than a $100,000 increase in yearly funds raised prior to his taking over as Penn State-CVC committee chairman.

PENN STATE UNIVERSITY

PENN STATE's historic mission of teaching, research, and public service — launched under the most modest of circumstances more than 150 years ago — now reaches into virtually all parts of Pennsylvania. Consider, for example, that the University now has 24 campuses across the Commonwealth, putting a Penn State education within practical reach of nearly every Pennsylvanian. In fact, nearly 75 percent of Penn State's undergraduates are Pennsylvania residents.

Penn State is Pennsylvania's largest nongovernmental employer and has employees and expenditures in every one of its 67 counties. The University generates a total economic impact across the Commonwealth that surpasses $8.5 billion annually. Part of that impact is derived from Penn State's research program, which brings more than $500 million in federal funds to Pennsylvania each year, and an additional $100 million from private industry.

Penn State's outreach and online programs — ranging from 4H to Cooperative Extension, from summer camps to public broadcasting — provide educational and service programs to more than a million Pennsylvania households annually.

The University's presence throughout Pennsylvania today contrasts sharply with its humble beginnings. Chartered as a college of scientific agriculture, the institution was located in rural Centre County after James Irvin, a partner in the Centre Furnace iron works (remains of which can be seen today along East College Avenue), offered to donate 200 acres of farmland for a campus.

Founding President Evan Pugh wanted the fledging institution to embody a new approach to higher education that blended classical studies with subjects that had practical value. He joined similar visionaries in other states in convincing Congress to pass the Morrill Land-Grant Act in 1862. The act gave individual states tracts of federal land to sell; the proceeds supported colleges that agreed to include engineering, science and the liberal arts as well as agriculture in their course of studies. In 1863, the Pennsylvania legislature designated Penn State the Commonwealth's sole land-grant institution. The lawmakers in effect bestowed on the privately incorporated college a public character. In return for state support, the institution assumed obligations of teaching, research and service that are normally associated with publicly owned land-grant universities in other states.

By the 1890s Penn State was making its mark. It ranked among the nation's 10 largest undergraduate engineering schools, a distinction it still holds. It established one of the nation's first collegiate agricultural experiment stations, and Professor Whitman Jordan's pioneering research on using fertilizers for soil enrichment had global impact on crop yields.

Penn State in 1871 became one of the first land-grant schools in the Northeast to admit women, graduated its first international student in 1890, and its first African-American student in 1905. In the early 1900s, President Edwin E. Sparks supported a number of efforts to "carry the college to the people," as he liked to say. Technical institutes were established in various locations statewide for engineering education, beginning with an evening school in Allentown in 1910. In 1912, Penn State helped create a system of county agents in agriculture and home economics. Today, the Penn State World Campus, with its “anywhere, anytime” learning through the Internet, builds on that outreach tradition.

But undergraduate education remained foremost. Enrollment surpassed 5,000 students by 1936, including those attending several undergraduate centers that were created for students who, in the depths of the Great Depression, could not afford to leave their hometowns to get a college education. The centers offered the first year of baccalaureate studies and were the predecessors of today’s statewide system of campuses. Thanks to this innovative approach to higher education, Penn State in the 1930s became Pennsylvania’s largest single source of baccalaureate degrees, a distinction it holds to this day.

Following World War II, Penn State underwent unprecedented expansion, first to meet the needs of returning military veterans and later to accommodate the Baby Boom generation. Total enrollment at all Penn State campuses climbed to 40,000 by 1970.

The University also emerged on the national scene as a research powerhouse in fields as diverse as dairy science, acoustics, psychology, and diesel engineering. The expansion of research went hand in hand with a steady increase in the number of graduate students.

The University awarded its first graduate degree — a master’s degree in scientific agriculture — in 1862, and the Graduate School was established in 1922. But overall graduate enrollment remained modest until the 1950s, then swelled steadily. In the past ten years alone, Penn State had awarded more than 30,000 master’s, doctoral, and other advanced degrees.

The University Park campus is Penn State’s administrative and research hub. In addition, there are 19 primarily undergraduate campuses; Penn State Milton S. Hershey Medical Center, including the College of Medicine; the Pennsylvania College of Technology; the Penn State Dickinson School of Law, Carlisle campus; the Penn State Great Valley School of Graduate Professional Studies; and the Penn State World Campus.

To date, Penn State has awarded nearly 750,000 degrees, hallmarks of an educational experience second to none in quality. In addition, Penn State alumni — including 327,000 in Pennsylvania alone — have job- and social-networking opportunities that no other college or university in the Commonwealth can surpass.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

ERIC J. BARRON, former dean at Penn State and former president of Florida State University, began his presidency at Penn State on May 12, 2014. Succeeding former President Rodney Erickson, who had served since 2011, Dr. Barron was named the 18th President of Penn State by the University’s Board of Trustees on February 17, 2014.

Dr. Barron returned to Penn State from the helm at Florida State, bringing with him nearly 35 years of leadership experience in academic administration, education, research, and public service, and a track record as a talented manager of fiscal policy within large and complex institutions. Dr. Barron led Florida State to two consecutive U.S. News and World Report rankings as the nation’s “most efficiently operated” institution of higher education.

Dr. Barron earned a bachelor of science degree in geology at Florida State in 1973 before moving on to the University of Miami, where he earned master’s and doctoral degrees in oceanography, in 1976 and 1980, respectively. Dr. Barron spent 20 years of his career at Penn State, serving as dean of the College of Earth and Mineral Sciences from 2002 to 2006, and as founding director of the Earth System Science Center, one of the first major initiatives focused on the total study of Earth as a system, from 1986 to 2002.

He also had a simultaneous appointment as director of the Earth and Mineral Sciences Environment Institute from 1998 to 2002. In 1999, he was named Distinguished Professor of Geosciences at Penn State, and during his tenure as director, Industry Week magazine ranked him among “50 R&D Stars to Watch.”

An accomplished scientist with a long background in atmospheric research, Dr. Barron served as director of the National Center for Atmospheric Research (NCAR) from 2008 to 2010 and as dean of the Jackson School of Geosciences at the University of Texas at Austin from 2006 to 2008. Early in his career he was a postdoctoral research fellow and scientist at the National Center for Atmospheric Research in Boulder, Colorado, a federal research center focusing on atmospheric and related science issues. Dr. Barron originally worked at NCAR as a postdoctoral fellow (1981-85), and served for one year on the faculty at the University of Miami before joining Penn State.

Over the decades, Dr. Barron has lent his significant expertise in the areas of atmospheric science and the geosciences to many national committees and federal organizations, including contributions as chair of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration’s (NOAA) science advisory board and nearly 20 years of service as the chair of multiple National Research Council committees and boards. ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

SANDY BARBOUR began her leadership of the Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics program on August 18, 2014.

Barbour brings to Penn State more than 30 years of varied experiences as a collegiate administrator and coach, with a demonstrated record of championships, academic success, innovation, facility modernization and revenue growth.

Serving as the Director of Athletics at Cal since 2004, Barbour guided the Golden Bears through one of the most successful periods in school history. Under her direction, the athletic department became one of the consistently elite programs in the country. Barbour's 10-year term as AD was the longest tenure for the department since men's and women's athletics merged into a single entity in 1992.

During her tenure overseeing Cal's 30-sport program, the Golden Bears won 20 team national championships, 97 individual national titles, finished in the top 10 in the annual Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings six times, including a program-best third in 2011, and reached record levels in ticket sales, sponsorships and fundraising.

Under Barbour's leadership, two major facility projects designed to benefit both student-athletes and fans opened. On Sept. 1, 2012, Cal welcomed a sold-out crowd to a newly restored California Memorial Stadium after the historic facility underwent a $321 million renovation and seismic retrofit to bring the facility up to modern standards while honoring the historic nature of the building.

Under Barbour's leadership, the average grade-point average for Cal's 30 teams was nearly 3.0. More than 175 student-athletes annually earned academic all-conference notice, and 17 teams received national recognition for their NCAA Academic Progress Rates over the last five years.

Named one of the "100 Most Influential Women in Business" in the Bay Area according to the San Francisco Business Times, Barbour was named a regional Athletic Director of the Year for 2008-09 by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), and she was a finalist for National AD of the Year at the Sports Business Awards. Barbour previously was chosen a 2006 Woman of Distinction by the East Bay Business Times and the 2006 National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators (NACWAA) Division I-A National Administrator of the Year.

While at Cal, Barbour was an active member of several committees on both the national and conference levels. In 2010, she was selected as the Pac-12 representative to the NCAA Division I Leadership Council, a four-year appointment. She has chaired the Pac-12 Athletic Directors TV Committee and served on the conference's Recruiting Guidelines Committee. Barbour has also served on the NACDA Executive Committee, the NCAA Diversity Leadership Strategic Planning Committee, the NCAA Women's Basketball Discussion Group and the WBCA Defensive Player of the Year Selection Committee.

Barbour has also served as the chair of the Pac-10 Budget and Finance Committee, been a member of the Pac-10 Executive Committee and the Pac-10 Television Committee, and was vice president of the conference in 2007-08.

Prior to moving to Berkeley, Barbour was the deputy director of athletics at Notre Dame, serving as the university's senior athletic administrator from July 2002 to September 2004. She previously held an associate athletic director position there starting in 2000.

Barbour's career in intercollegiate athletic administration spans more than 30 years, beginning as a field hockey assistant coach and lacrosse administrative assistant at the University of Massachusetts in 1981. She has since served as assistant athletic director at Northwestern and in 1991 was recruited to Tulane as an associate athletic director.

Born Dec. 2, 1959, in Annapolis, Md., Barbour grew up in a military family. Her father was a career aviator in the U.S. Navy, and her family lived in various U.S. locations as well as in Western Europe during her childhood.

Barbour graduated cum laude in 1981 with a B.S. degree in physical education from Wake Forest, where she was a four-year letterwinner and served as captain of the field hockey team. She also played two varsity seasons of women's basketball.

Barbour earned advanced degrees at both Massachusetts (an M.S. in sports management in 1983) and Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management (an MBA in 1991).

Between master's programs, Barbour served as assistant field hockey and lacrosse coach at Northwestern from 1982-84. She also held the position of director of recruiting services during that period, before being promoted to assistant athletic director for intercollegiate programs in 1984, a position she held until 1989.
